'ɜrnɪst 'hɛmɪŋ,weɪ

Ernest Hemingway is one of the greatest 20th-century American writers. The legend which developed around his impressive personality was that of a man of action, a devil-may-care adventurer, a brave war correspondent, an amateur boxer, a big-game hunter and deep-sea fisherman, the victim of three car accidents and two plane crashes, a man of four wives and many loves, but above all a brilliant writer of stories and novels.

Hemingway was born in 1899 in Oak Park, Illinois. His father was a doctor who initiated the boy into the outdoor life of hunting, camping, and fishing. While at school, Hemingway played football and wrote articles for the school newspaper.

After graduating from high school, he worked for some time at Kansas newspaper. Meanwhile, the peace in the world was interrupted by the World War I. Ernest soon joined the forefront as a Red Cross driver in Italy. At some point he was seriously injured.

During the Second World War he spent lots of time in Cuba. He created one of his best stories there - "The Old Man and The Sea".

He was awarded the Nobel Prize
for literature in 1954.

This book touches the soul and hearts of readers all over the world. The novel "the old Man and the sea" tells not only about the strong moral spirit and courage of the old fisherman, but it also brings to the reader the theme of loneliness of man in society.

- He was very lonely.
- The old man was a born fisherman, but he was not a butcher and fished only for a living.
- He was weak and old.
- He was greedy and silly.
- A strong man at last had met a strong fish.
- He is a symbol of old, wise generation.
